2 GRANT OF LICENCE.

- a. Licence. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Isis Forensics hereby grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence, without rights to sublicense, to use the Software in accordance with the Documentation. Use of the Software shall be strictly limited to the number and type of licences (whether named user, concurrent user, per device or any other approved model) purchased and paid for by you.

Under the named user model, a “named user” is a single User authorised by you to access or use the Software, regardless of whether or not the individual is using the Software at any given time. A licence is required for each User.

Under the concurrent user model, a “concurrent user” is a single User authorised by you to access or use the Software, where such User is accessing or using the Software at any given time and regardless of the number of connections used by that individual. A licence is required for each User.

Under the device model, a “device” is a device authorised by you to be used by a User to access or use of the Software, regardless of whether the device is being used at any given time. A licence is required for each such device.

Users shall use and/or access the Software solely on behalf of and for the benefit of you or your applicable Affiliate and in accordance with this Agreement. You shall be responsible for all acts and omissions committed by any Users. You may make one backup, unmodified copy of the Software solely for archival purpose.

- b. Perpetual Licence. If the Software is “Perpetual Licence Software” the Software is licenced on a perpetual basis. You acknowledge and agree that any licences purchased in addition to your initial purchase shall be considered to expand the initial licence grant and shall not constitute a separate licence to the Software.
- c. Subscription Licence. If the Software is “Subscription Licence Software” your licence is for the period of time for which you have subscribed. To extend a Subscription Licence, you must purchase and install a new licence prior to the end of the expiration of the current subscription period. Note that, unless otherwise agreed, if a new Subscription Licence is not purchased, Subscription Licence Software is not licenced for use beyond the expiration of the subscription period. Subscription Licence Software may disable itself upon the expiration of the subscription period.

Your Subscription Licence includes basic level support and maintenance services, as more fully detailed at [www.IsisForensics.com/support], which expires upon expiration of the licence period. Enhanced level support may be available for separate purchase.

- d. Evaluation. If the Software is identified as “Evaluation” then, notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement, you are permitted to use the Software only for internal demonstration, test or evaluation purposes in a non-production environment, and for the period specified on the software licence key (if not indicated this period will be 30 days from delivery) following which the Software may automatically disable itself. You acknowledge that Isis Forensics is not obligated to permit further use of the Software past the expiration date. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY CONTRARY PROVISION IN THIS AGREEMENT THE EVALUATION SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS-IS" WITHOUT SUPPORT OR WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED.

- e. Not for Resale. If the Software is identified as "Not for Resale" then, notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Agreement, you may only use the Software if you are a current Isis Forensics authorised distributor or program partner/participant and then only for demonstration purposes in support of your customers. This licence will terminate automatically upon you ceasing to be an Isis Forensics authorised distributor or program partner/participant. Not for Resale Software may not be used for customer training unless otherwise agreed by Isis Forensics. This licence may be terminated by Isis Forensics at any time, with or without cause. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY CONTRARY PROVISION IN THIS AGREEMENT, NOT FOR RESALE SOFTWARE IS PROVIDED "AS-IS" WITHOUT SUPPORT OR WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED.

You acknowledge and agree that the Software may be provided with certain open source software (as defined by the Open Source Initiative) or freeware software (collectively, "Open Source Software"), as referenced in the Documentation, for use in combination with the Software. Such Open Source Software is free and distributed to you solely under the terms set forth in the respective Open Source Software licence agreements (which are referenced in the Documentation and/or the Isis Forensics website) and you acknowledge and agree that this Agreement in no way supplements or detracts from any term or condition therein.
- 3 SUPPORT AND MAINTENANCE SERVICES. Except as specified for Subscription Licence Software, Isis Forensics does not provide any technical support or maintenance services for the Software under this Agreement and you have no rights to any updates, upgrades, enhancements or other modifications to the Software (collectively "Updates") unless you purchase Isis Forensics support and maintenance services. All support and maintenance services provided for Perpetual Licences and Subscription Licences are subject to Isis Forensics's then-current terms and conditions as apply to support and maintenance services as displayed at www.isis-forensics.com/legals. If you purchase support and maintenance services for the Software, you are required to purchase and maintain such services at the same level for all licences of the Software. Any generally available Updates provided to you pursuant to the maintenance services shall be considered Software under the terms of this Agreement.
